

Gaal a problem solver

To the editor:

I have worked with Chris Gaal for more than 20 years in both private practice and in the prosecutor's office. His life experience and professional qualifications and accomplishments are proof that he will be an outstanding judge for the people of Monroe County.

Chris has always displayed a unique commitment to public service. It is not merely a job to him; it is who he is: a problem solver. Even before becoming a lawyer, Chris was an active advocate for the less fortunate and oppressed here and elsewhere. His entire adult life has been dedicated to improving the "system" to make it more responsive to the needs and concerns of ordinary people, especially those whose voices frequently go unheard.

His commitment continued after he became a lawyer by representing people with a wide range of legal problems; and then as prosecuting attorney. Most important is his exceptional character and integrity. He is the kind of human being we need making judicial decisions for the people of Monroe County. We can count on him to make fair and impartial decisions according to the law and facts of each case. Please join me in supporting Chris Gaal for Judge.
