

Gaal – Clear Choice for Judge

To the editor:

Chris Gaal is my friend. I watched him in action as a fellow Democratic council member for four years and as prosecutor for many more years than that.

Chris Gaal was working on quality of life issues along with serious social issues with me on the council. As prosecutor, Chris has worked directly with Middle Way House to help prevent and deal with violence against women, has worked to publicize fraud and abuse of the elderly and pushed for reform in the justice system.

Chris has tirelessly served his local community at the seriously challenging and even dangerous job as prosecutor. I've always been impressed with his balanced approach to people and issues. His calm "high road" campaigning and his guitar playing pirate band reflect the cheerful warrior we have in Chris.

He's been here in the community and has been a Democrat selflessly serving Bloomington citizens as long as I have known him. I'm voting for the lifelong progressive Democrat who has consistently worked for fairness and justice right here in Bloomington. That can only mean Chris Gaal for judge.
